

jake's story

Jake came to the shelter at 17 years of age. Originally from Jamaica, he and his father were sponsored to come to Canada a couple of years before and lived with his father's partner. Jake started school full time and also found a part time job.

After a while his father started to change, they argued all the time, and then moved when his father's relationship ended. His dad often threatened to kick him out if he did not start paying rent. Jake was only working part time so offered to pay $150 a month, but his father said he needed to pay at least $400.

After much determination and motivation to succeed Jake was able to secure his own place.

Living with his dad became very stressful; there was never enough food to eat nor money for bus tickets to school. His school counsellor started to provide him with lunch vouchers and bus tickets.

When he came home one day, he found all his belongings on the front porch and was not allowed back in his home. His school referred him to Our Place Peel.

While staying at the shelter Jake continued to go to work and school. The youth counsellors at the shelter supported him in creating a case plan to help him get on his feet. He was able to apply for Ontario Works and we helped him to create two plans as to what to do next.

Jake decided that he wanted to move out on his own, but just in case he would apply for admission to Peel Youth Village as a back up plan. After much determination and motivation to succeed Jake was able to secure his own place.

Our Place Peel provided him with a care package of personal care items, and a phone number to our Outreach Worker who would continue to support him while he is in his own place. Since then we have continued to maintain contact and have been able to track his progress.

Recently, we received news that at his co-op placement he has been offered a paid apprenticeship due to the fact he is doing so well. In September he will be attending a local college for Culinary Arts. We are so proud of Jake and his accomplishments!

funding grant

We are proud to announce that Our Place Peel received a funding grant of $37,000 to undertake an assessment of the current emergency youth shelter's space design. We thank the Ontario Trillium Foundation for their support of our request to hire Hildtich Architect to make a comprehensive assessment of our existing shelter for proper developmental planning to support a possible enhancement of services to accommodate youth ages 16-21 in need of transitional beds.

tara

I, Tara,
Am hunkered down in a dingy doorway,
Lost, alone and scared,
Spiked hair, tattoos and piercings
Belle my sixteen years.
The child within me growing chokes defiance, replacing it with fears.

I fled from a home of anger and hate
And unwanted advances I could not tolerate.
But now without knowing what to do, I am
Cold and hungry with nowhere left to turn,
On Christmas Eve in the city
I long for warmth, food and some kind friend.

Winter-clad strangers pass by as off to parties we go,
Heads filled with plans we will not forego,
Give not a thought for the girl and her invisible plight.
While folk carrying gaily-wrapped parcels
Or bottles from our local liquor store
rush home to hot meals, our loved ones and Christmas décor.
Crouched in the doorway, my knapsack by my side,
I hope for the death that will surely come,
'til a voice breaks my grim reverie.
A pair of shiny boots she sees, a uniform she fears,
But a hand reaches out to help banish away tears.

He takes her to a place of refuge and cheer,
Called Our Place Peel for youth such as her.
There I find safety and have nothing to fear.
Welcomed by staff at Our Place Peel,
Tara finds the comfort she craves and skills to employ,
While the counsel she receives helps to reveal
Her strengths and more wisdom in the choices she makes.

Friendships develop with youth and counsellors too
I now find a family such as I never knew.
Her pregnancy cared for, her schooling too,
Tara's future looks brighter at Our Place Peel,
Thanks to the staff and the patience that will heal.
And so the harp through Tara's hall still plays.

ashley & gursheel's story

Ashley Coulson and Gursheel Dhami are two students who go to Kindree Public School in Mississauga. They were given an assignment by their teachers, Mr. Bryan Woods and Ms. Avryl McKoy, where they were required to take out the "main idea" of a given story. The story involved a girl that was helping a child who was homeless. This story gave an idea to both Gursheel and Ashley; that they should somehow help those who are most in need of a home.

They decided that they were going to buy a few cookies and make a few cookies themselves. They had about 40 cookies and sold each for $2. "Me and my friend who are doing this were just thinking about how lucky we are to have all this stuff and these homeless people have nothing. So we decided to help by selling the cookies." They then decided to go to their other teacher, Ms. Karen Lynch, and told her their idea. She later suggested that they donate their earnings to Our Place Peel. It took the girls only 10 days to sell all 40 cookies and at the end of the day they earned more than they expected $94 for Our Place Peel.

Thank you Ashley and Gursheel!

residential program changes & shelter enhancements

In spring 2010, Our Place Peel's Board of Directors made the difficult decision to close the residential program in Brampton effective June 30, 2010. This program started in 1985 as part of a Futures initiative by the Ministry of Education to provide residential housing for college students who were seeking employment. It was designed to accommodate up to six youth (aged 16-21) living together for up to one year in a rental house that is staffed 24/7.

Over the past few years the program has struggled to cover its operating costs and its occupancy has not been at full capacity, suggesting that the community need for this type of residential programming may be declining. Replacing these six residential beds will be six new transitional beds as part of an enhancement project for the emergency shelter located in Mississauga.

This project is being funded by a Homelessness Partnership Strategy grant from the Region of Peel and requires renovations to the lower level of the shelter facility that will start this fall. These transitional beds will enable the shelter to accommodate homeless youth who need to stay longer and require more programming supports than the three week period currently offered. These beds would be used by youth requiring a stay of approximately one to three months, who most likely will come from the emergency shelter population. This helps to free up more shelter beds to meet emergency accommodation needs and reduces the number of youth that are turned away due to lack of beds. Currently, we turn away one or more youth per day each month.

The Board wishes to thank all the residential program staff and volunteers who have dedicated themselves to providing a comfortable, caring and home like environment for so many youth over the past 25 years. Special thanks to all the donors, supporters and funders who have contributed to its operation during this time. In particular, the support of the Ministry of Community Social Services – Ministry of Children & Youth Services, Central West Region, and its dedicated staff team is greatly appreciated.
